

KAAP Executive Board Section Report Highlights

As reported by Section Representatives at the January 12, 2005 KAAP Executive Board Meeting

Counselors' Section: KADACA President Harold Price reported that NAADAC had officially waived the dues increase for KAAP that it had recently instituted. He also reported that the dues were coming in steadily.

Educators' Section: Section President Tom Hall reported that 14 universities were working together to develop curriculum in accordance with standards developed earlier by the Section.

KADSPA, Program Administrators' Section: Section President Bev Metcallf noted that the January meeting had been postponed for weather and gave the rescheduled date of Feb. 3. Bev also reported that planning for the annual Legislative Breakfast was underway with a tentative date of March 9 in the State Capitol in Topeka.

Problem Gambling Section: Section President Ron Eisenbarth reported that this month the election of new officers for the section would take place.

Special Populations Section: NAWA Representative Carol Shopteese reported that the curriculum and structure groups of NAWA continued to make headway in their planning. She also mentioned that Elaine Mzhickteno had been voted interim director for NAWA, with Jim Potter serving as secretary.

Student Section: Section Vice President Katrina Harris reported that Kansas City Kansas Community College had recently been recognized as the second official charter chapter of the KAAP Student Section. She also noted that the student essay competition, "Call for Papers" was ramping up again.

Thank you, Harold Price, for your service...

Harold Price, KADACA Section President and representative to the KAAP Executive Board, recently offered written resignation from his post due to time demands of his professional position with Family Life Center, Inc. Thank you, Harold, for your commitment and service to the Counselors' Section as well as to the KAAP Executive Board.
